Miami Student Advocacy Network

Miami University is committed to providing all students with the support and the resources necessary for a successful tenure at Miami University. The Miami Student Advocacy Network will assist you by providing individual attention and appropriate referrals to assist in the resolution of an academic or non-academic matter as well as any administrative concern. If you believe you are having difficulty in resolving a problem or finding an answer to a concern, you should contact the Miami Student Advocacy Network.

The advocates are faculty, administrators, and staff who serve as knowledgeable resources for students. There are times when you may have difficulty knowing how to address certain concerns. The Miami Student Advocacy Network provides impartial and objective assistance in connecting you with the resources, information, and/or directions to appropriate offices for resolution. For example, you may be directed to an academic division for grade resolution or to the Office of Ethics and Student Conflict Resolution for non-academic conduct issues or perhaps to the Student Health Service for medical issues.

While it is of primary importance to see that issues are addressed appropriately and in a timely fashion, The Miami Student Advocacy Network does not provide legal advice or representation in any adversarial hearing or judicial proceeding. The primary role of the advocacy program is to see that the student's needs are met and the appropriate referral or resource is provided.
