

中國 文化 節

Miami University
Hamilton Campus

Tuesday,
April 7, 2009

Please join us for an afternoon and evening immersed in Chinese Culture and tradition. Guests from China will be showcasing Chinese Martial Arts (Gongfu), Chinese Handicrafts, and traditional Chinese Instruments.

Co-sponsored by
Miami University Hamilton

3:00 pm
Schwarm Hall, Outdoor Patio Area
(rain location inside
Schwarm Hall)

The Afternoon will begin with informal performances of Chinese Gongfu, or martial arts, and interactive demonstrations of Chinese Handicrafts—paper cutting and Chinese knotting. Light refreshments will be served.

6:00 pm
Wilks Conference Center

The evening will begin with a brief lecture and explanation of the Chinese Arts, followed by dinner. A musical performance showcasing the Chinese instruments, Guzheng and Erhu will conclude the evening. The Guzheng is an ancient Chinese stringed instrument, and the Erhu is a Chinese two-stringed bowed instrument, known as a “Chinese violin”.

We hope you can join us for this very exciting
Chinese Cultural Event!

Oxford Campus Students...
Catch a ride on the Metro
and join us in Hamilton.

China Week at Miami University April 6-10, 2009

Presented by The Confucius Institute at Miami University & Liaoning Normal University, Dalian, China

Are You Ready to Immerse Yourself in Chinese Culture and Tradition?

China Week, a weeklong, campus wide event, will include a Chinese skit competition, lecture, concert, handicraft workshops, martial arts demonstrations and and musical performances. Come and experience the amazing world of the Orient.

