

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records, both financial and academic. For the student's protection, FERPA limits release of student record information without the student's explicit written consent; however it also gives the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) the right to review those records if the parent(s)/guardian(s) claim the student as a dependent on their Federal Income Tax Return.

PART B - IF YOUR STUDENT HAS NOT LISTED YOU IN PART A, PARENT(S)/GUARDIAN(S) MAY COMPLETE PART B

In lieu of a student's signed release, complete Part B of this form and attach a signed copy of your [parent(s)/guardian(s)] 2007 Federal Income Tax Return to certify that the student is your dependent according to Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code. Part B is valid for only the current academic year through summer sessions. Since IRS dependency can change annually, you must submit copies of your Federal Income Tax Return each year along with this form to continue access to your student's records.

In order to gain access to my son/daughter's financial and/or academic records, I certify that I am the parent(s)/guardian(s) of (please print) _____ with Student ID Number _____ and that he/she is dependent according to Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note to Parents/Guardians: If your child is not a dependent as defined by IRS standards, we will only be able to release information about his/her financial and academic records if he/she completes Part A of this form. In the case of divorce or separation where only one parent claims the child as a dependent, Miami University grants equal access to financial and academic records to the other parent if the information is completed in Part B. Exceptions to this rule include a court order or legally binding document stating otherwise.
