Oxford Student Change of Campus Relocation to Regional Campus

Students may relocate to the Regional Campuses from the Oxford campus if they are commuting to campus from their home and they are taking their classes on the regional campus. Students with fewer than 68 MU hours will be charged lower division fees. Students with 68 or more hours will be charged upper division fees.

Name _____ I.D. Number _____

I wish to be considered a Regional Campus student for the _____ Year/Term.

I understand:

- I will not have automatic access to Oxford Campus courses
- I will not have access to the Rec Center, the University Health Center or Miami Metro
- I will be assessed Regional Campus fees (instructional, general, and data network, and out-of-state fees if applicable)
- I will not be automatically billed for health insurance but will have the ability to request health insurance through the Student Services at Hamilton or Middletown
- If I have financial aid, I need to check the ramifications of this change on my aid.
- If I need to relocate back to the Oxford campus, I will need to complete the relocation to Oxford form and submit it to the regional campus Registration Office.
