

Proposed Amendment to the Miami Hamilton Governance Document

When voting on the approval of a prospective new student organization, a quorum is not necessary; the student organization will be approved based on a majority vote of those voting members who are present.